WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 29

Fall of a Holy Man.

As already reported by telegraph, the Rejah of Pooree and four of his servants have been sentenced to transportation for life. They were convicted of murdering a religious beggar by torture. The Rajah, as the guardian of the Juggernath, has been a person of consequence and "a holy man," and this mode of dealing with him has proved, it is said, a convincing proof to the inhabitants of Bengal of the strength of the government.

The following particulars are given regarding the alleged torture and murder of the Babaji by positious show that the deceased Babaji had the reputation of curing all sorts of dis tempers, which attracted the notice of the Dowager Rani, whose adopted son the Rajah is; and that the Rani, on a certain occasion, sent a message to the deceased to cure the Rajah of what she be lieved to be signs of insanity, or, to quote the words of the Babaji, the Rani believed "the Rajah was losing his senses." The Babaji then sent a tulasi leaf, with an intimation that the Rajah would be cured in eight days. It would thus appear that there was some misunderstanding between the Dowager Rani and the Rajah, and this trifling matter was, from what tell from the Rejah's own lips at the time of assault, gravely misrepresented to him. Influenced by this misrepresentation Gopi Singh, peon of the Rajah, accompanied by another servant, was sent to fetch the deceased, Siva Das Babaji, from Damodurpur, a village about five miles from Pooree. He started on February 29 and returned with Babeji. While passing the Pooree police station the Head Constable Giridharl Lal, accosted the Babaji, and requested him to sit a while at the station; but the Babaji said he had been sent for by the Rajab, and would, if possible, call at the station on his reture. Babaji was then shown in, his four companions (his disciples) being ordered to await at the main entrance. The Babaji was then taken to the Rajah's private gymnasium, situated in a secluded part of the palace, when he was ordered to sit down. No sooner did he do so than about ten or twelve servants of the Rejah fell upon him and comlabored him with clubs and fists, filth being put into his mouth, the mouth tied up with a piece of cloth. Then a number of pieces of pith were rammed into the intestines by means of a menced a series of brutal tortures. They bewere rammed into the intestines by means of a stick—the man passed thirty nine such pieces through sleeper, for New Orleans, connects at before his death. He was then burned by a Lynchburg for the West and South West, and, toroh and thrown out by a back door into a at Danville, for South, South East and South lane behind the Rajah's house. From this place he managed to crawl to the lion gate of the temple, a distance of about six hundred feet, and was completely overcome there. He died on March 8. A Calcutta telegram says a special High Court Bench, consisting of the Chief Justice and two Puisne judges, will sit to day to hear an appeal in the case of the Rajah of Pooree.
